The Lagoon 410 is full of innovations. With unmatched standing headroom, three large cabins with ample wardrobe and lockers, two spacious bathrooms with separate showers, and a salon comparable to that of a 50' cruiser, it's a breakthrough in cruising catamaran design.

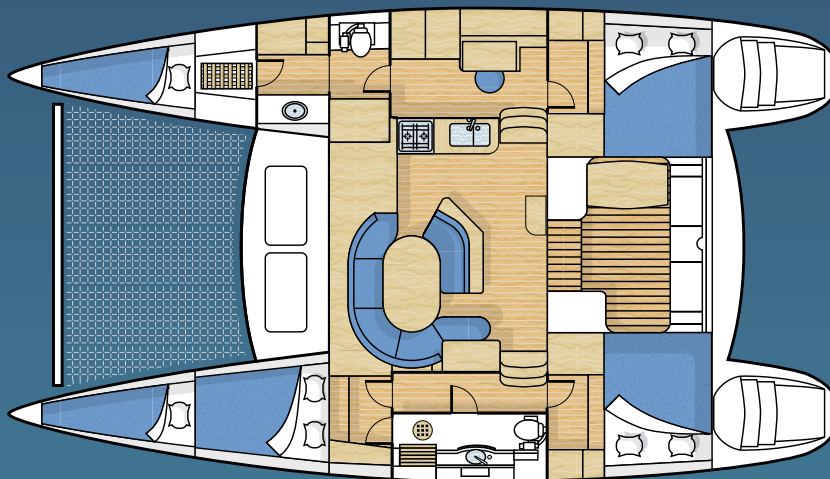

Never before has the concept of panoramic visibility at sea been so remarkably achieved. The original roof and window design, plus the imaginative access from the stern skirt to the cockpit and salon, offers practical space and capacity to live, sail, and entertain, a truly multi-purpose usage of surface area and size. The steering position is very comfortable and offers exceptional visibility, allowing the helmsman to handle all situations and considerably aides docking maneuvers. Her pointing ability is quite honorable and off the wind her speed and stability in the greatest comfort is surprising. The mainsail has lazyjacks and a stackpack system for easy handling. The roomy cockpit, wide swim platforms, and uncluttered decks and anti-skid finish with ample sunbathing space on the decks and trampoline make for a most pleasurable sailing vacation vessel. The galley is roomy and an integral part of the salon, which has seating for eight.
